

LOBELIA

Location: Zone 3-4, part shade, moist, well-drained soil

Shape: Upright to mounded

Foliage: Green to burgundy

Flowers: Summer to fall

Notes: Cardinal flower grows native along streambeds. It thrives in areas where other perennials would rot and adds bold color to shady corners of the garden. Long blooming flowers attract hummingbirds.

Cardinal Red

H: 36-48" W: 24-36"

Great Blue

H: 24-36" W: 24-36"

